INSTRUCTIONS AND TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. This form facilitates you to register multiple bank mandates (5 per form) for all investments held in a specified folio. If you wish to register more than 5 bank accounts, please use additional copies of this form.
2. Please enclose an original cancelled cheque for each bank account you wish to register in order to enable us to verify and register your bank details accurately. If a cancelled cheque is not provided for a bank account or if the bank details differ from those on the cancelled cheque, that bank account will not be registered.
3. You can choose any one bank account as your default account, which will henceforth be used to credit your redemption/dividend payouts. You can change your default account at any time by giving us a written instruction.
4. You can choose to receive your redemption payout in any one of these bank accounts, if you specify your preference in the redemption request. Else, we will credit the default bank account.
5. If any accounts is closed/altered, please intimate us in writing in order to help us alter our records.
6. We take the following steps to safeguard your investments from fraudulent encashment:
 - a. If you make a redemption request together with a change of bank account, the payment will be made as per normal payment timelines and only if it is one of the bank accounts registered with us.
 - b. If it is a new bank account, the redemption proceeds will be paid only after the expiry of 8 calendar days from the date of the redemption request.
